

REMARKS

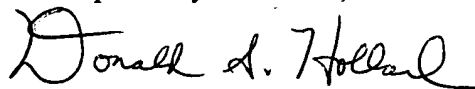

By this Amendment after Allowance, Applicant respectfully seeks to correct some typographical errors in the Specification. Applicant did not notice the typos until recently re-reading the Specification.

Applicant believes that the proposed changes clarify the Specification (especially the test results shown in a Table) without affecting the allowed claims. The proposed changes also do not affect the Examiner's reasons for allowance.

If the Examiner considers any of these to be new matter, Applicant requests that the Amendment be entered in part.

Applicant apologizes for any inconvenience this may have caused. Thank you for your assistance.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Donald S. Holland". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Donald" being the most prominent part.
